- 2.2 Any Order will deemed to be accepted when the Company issues written acceptance of the Order at which point and on which date the Contract shall come into existence.

- 3.1 The Company will supply Goods and Services to the Customer subject only to these Conditions. Any Quotation is valid for a period of 30 days only from its date, provided that the Company has not previously withdrawn it.
- 3.2 Each Order shall be deemed to be an offer by the Customer to purchase the Goods and/or Services subject to these Conditions.
- 3.3 Once an agreement has arisen pursuant to the provisions of clause 3.2, no Order may be cancelled by the Customer without the Company's written consent and subject to the Customer's payment of all costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Company, including any such costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection with the Goods and/or Services.

- 3.4 The Customer shall ensure that the terms of its Order and any Input Material are complete and accurate so as to enable the Company to meet the Creative Brief.
- 3.5 Where the Company has agreed to undertake Installation Works for the Customer under the Contract, the Company will carry out a survey of the Site before production of the Goods commences in order to ascertain the existence of anything which may affect the Company's ability to undertake its contractual obligations for the Price, in which case the Company may vary the Price following notification to the Customer of any required changes, including any changes which may be required to the Technical Specification Brief and Creative Brief.

- 4.2 All samples, drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by the Company and any descriptions or illustrations contained in the Company's catalogues or brochures or on the Company's website are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Goods and/or Services described in them. They shall not form part of the Contract.
- 4.3 The Company reserves the right to make any changes in the Technical Specification Brief of the Goods and/or Services which are required to conform to any applicable safety standard or other requirements or which do not materially affect their quality or performance.

4.4 The Customer shall indemnify and hold the Company harmless against all damages, costs and expenses awarded against or incurred by the Company or agreed to be paid by the Company in settlement or in connection with any claim for infringement of any Intellectual Property Rights, misuse of Confidential Information, defamation or other similar claim directly or indirectly resulting from or arising from the Company's use of any Input Material.

5. PERFORMANCE OF THE CONTRACT

5.1 The Company shall use its reasonable efforts to supply the Goods and/or Services to the Customer at the Site within the Lead Time, but time of performance shall not be of the essence. The Lead Time shall not in any event be deemed to commence until the conditions in clause 3.11 have been satisfied.

5.2 The Company shall be entitled to supply the Goods and/or Services in instalments in which case each instalment shall be treated as an entirely separate contract and any default or breach by the Company in respect of any such instalment shall not entitle the Customer to cancel any other instalment or treat the Contract as a whole as repudiated. Signature of the Company's delivery note by a person reasonably appearing to be the Customer's representative shall be conclusive proof of delivery.

5.3 The Customer shall inspect the Goods on completion of installation and if the Goods are damaged at this stage, unless the Customer puts a note to such effect on the sign off sheet provided and notifies the Company within 3 days of completion of installation, confirming the notification in writing by letter to the Company within 7 days of installation, no claim against the Company may be made in respect of damage to such Goods. Except where such notification is given, the Customer shall be deemed to accept the Goods on completion of installation notwithstanding any late delivery by the Company.

5.4 The Customer will have no claim in respect of any alleged non-delivery or non-installation of the Goods unless it gives written notice to the Company which is received by the Company within 7 days of the date of the invoice in respect of those Goods.

5.5 If the Customer fails to take or accept delivery of the Goods or fails to give the Company adequate delivery instructions before any estimated delivery date, then, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the Company, the Company may:

5.5.1 store the Goods until actual delivery is made and charge the Customer for the costs (including insurance) of storage; and/or

5.5.2 resell or otherwise dispose of the Goods at the best price readily obtainable and (after deducting all storage and selling expenses) charge the Customer for any shortfall below the Price.

5.6 The Customer warrants that they will survey the area to ensure Goods and Surface are applicable and report to the Company of any requirements or needs to ensure the Goods are fit for purpose.

5.7 Where the Company undertakes a survey of the Site in accordance with the provisions of clause 3.5, any adverse or material change in any Site conditions following the survey shall entitle the Company to charge the Customer for any additional costs, charges or expenses incurred or likely to be incurred by the Company resulting directly or indirectly therefrom.

- 5.8 Where the Company has agreed in the Contract to perform any Services for the Customer then the Customer shall, at its sole cost:
- 5.8.1 provide the Company with all information, co-operation and support that may be required to enable the Company to carry out its obligations to the Customer;
 - 5.8.2 prepare the Site for the supply of the Services, remove from the Site any item that could pose an obstacle to the performance of the Services and undertake any making good required in order for the Services to be performed;
 - 5.8.3 provide or procure adequate facilities at the Site to enable the Company to perform the Services (together with access to and provision of all utilities, including water and electricity services) and further to allow full, complete, uninterrupted and unimpeded access to the Site;
 - 5.8.4 provide the Company with basic welfare facilities, consisting of the use of toilet facilities and the use of hot and cold running water;
 - 5.8.5 take all steps to ensure the health and safety of the personnel of the Company whilst they are in attendance at the Site and shall be solely responsible for ensuring the safety of any and all other persons who are or may be present at the Site during the performance of the Services, including restricting access to those areas of the Site where the Services are to be performed to those individuals engaged in performing the Services, or providing assistance to those so engaged;
 - 5.8.6 at all times whilst the Services are being performed, ensure, insofar as it is reasonably practicable to do so, that other operations are not undertaken at the Site, so as to ensure that the Services can be performed in one continuous, uninterrupted operation during the Company's normal working hours;
 - 5.8.7 provide safe, suitable and secure covered storage for all of the Company's equipment, materials and tools at the Site until the Services have been completed;
 - 5.8.8 permit the use of scaffolding and specialised access equipment at the Site where any Goods are to be installed at height;
 - 5.8.9 obtain and maintain all requisite licenses, permissions and other statutory or non-statutory consents which are required for the performance of the Services at the Site and comply with all relevant legislation, standards or requirements in relation to the performance of the Services at the Site, in all cases before the date on which the performance of the Services is to commence; and
 - 5.8.10 effect and maintain appropriate insurance at the Site on an all risks basis and in an adequate amount.
- 5.9 Where the Customer fails to comply with any obligation set out in clause 5.8, the Company shall be entitled at its option to:
- 5.9.1 terminate the Contract in relation to the relevant Services; or

- 5.9.2 continue with the supply of the relevant Services and charge for such additional costs, charges and expenses as it has incurred in relation to the performance or attempted performance of those Services.
- 5.10 Without prejudice to the generality of clauses 5.8 or 5.9, but with respect to Installation Works only (and unless otherwise agreed by the Company in writing), the Installation Works shall be undertaken on the basis that:
- 5.10.1 the Works Area will be free from any obstructions which may impede the progress of the Installation Works;
 - 5.10.2 all items and decorations will be removed from the Surface prior to the commencement of the Installation Works;
 - 5.10.3 the Surface will be smooth and level and will not require any type of preparation (including plastering, filling or sanding) in order for the Installation Works to proceed;
 - 5.10.4 nothing on or below the Surface (including any concealed wiring, cables or pipes) will interfere with the progress of the Installation Works or require any additional work to be undertaken;
 - 5.10.5 the Company shall not be responsible for making good at the Site after installation; and
 - 5.10.6 the Company shall not be responsible for the ultimate removal or disposal of any Goods installed by the Company.
- 5.11 With respect to the installation of the Goods:
- 5.11.1 upon substantial completion of the Installation Works, the Company will give the Customer notice of its intention to hand over the Installation Works and will give the Customer the opportunity to inspect the Installation Works prior to handover. The Company will confirm the date of handover to the Customer. The sole responsibility of the Company will be to remedy minor defects for which it is responsible and which are notified to it prior to handover;
 - 5.11.2 the Customer's representative responsible for inspection and sign-off of the Installation Works must be an individual with appropriate authority who has been involved in the implementation of the Contract from the outset. The signature of the Company's installation note by the Customer's representative shall be conclusive proof of the satisfactory installation of the Goods; and
 - 5.11.3 where the Goods comprise signage or any bespoke structure or piece of artwork, the Customer acknowledges that without adequate maintenance, there is a risk over time that the Goods may become detached from the Surface to which they have been attached or affixed and the Customer accordingly undertakes to have the Goods properly inspected and maintained at regular and frequent intervals in order to mitigate this risk.
- 5.12 Where the Customer cancels the scheduled installation date seven (7) days or fewer before the scheduled installation date, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that cancellation fees may be applicable at the Company's sole discretion.

6. PRICE AND PAYMENT

- 6.1 The Price shall be the price stated in the Contract (subject to any additional or increased costs, charges and expenses as may be payable pursuant to these Conditions). The Price shall be exclusive of any applicable VAT and the cost of carriage, packaging and insurance if not expressly included in the Price, which the Customer shall be additionally liable to pay to the Company.
- 6.2 The Company will invoice the Customer at the following intervals:
- 6.2.1 for the Deposit following receipt of an Order and before installation; then
 - 6.2.2 for the remaining 50% balance of the Price once installation has been completed by the Company.
- 6.3 The Customer shall pay the invoices for the Deposit and for the balance of the Price in full within the time stipulated by the Company in the relevant invoice. Time of payment shall be of the essence.
- 6.4 The Customer shall make payment to the Company in respect of all other invoices in full within 30 days from the date of the corresponding invoice. Time of payment shall be of the essence.
- 6.5 The Company reserves the right to increase the Price to reflect any increase in the cost to the Company which is due to any factor beyond its control, including any foreign exchange fluctuation, alteration of import or export duties or tariffs or any relevant tax, increase in the cost of labour, materials or costs of production, or for any matter attributable to the Customer, including any change in delivery or installation dates, quantities or specifications for the Goods and Services which is requested or confirmed by the Customer or any delay caused by the Customer or the failure of the Customer to give the Company adequate access, information or instructions.
- 6.6 The Company further reserves the right to increase the Price should the Customer require any material changes to the original Technical Specification Brief, Creative Brief or Initial Design.
- 6.7 The Customer shall make all payments due under the Contract in full without any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, discount, abatement or otherwise.
- 6.8 If at any time the credit standing of the Customer has in the reasonable opinion of the Company been impaired, the Company may suspend the further provision of Goods and/or Services to the Customer without incurring any liability until arrangements as to payment or credit have been established which are reasonably satisfactory to the Company.
- 6.9 If any payment is not received by the Company by its due date then without prejudice to its other rights and remedies the Company shall be entitled:
- 6.9.1 to recover the entire Price from the Customer; and/or

- 6.9.5 to require the immediate return to the Company of all Goods agreed to be sold by the Company to the Customer in which the property has not passed to the Customer; and/or
- 6.9.6 to recover its reasonable costs incurred in recovering payment from the Customer together with its costs and expenses in recovering the Goods.

7. WARRANTIES, LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

- 7.1 The Company warrants that the Goods will correspond in all material respects with the Technical Specification and will be free of defects in material and workmanship for a period of six (6) months from the date of delivery (or, where the Company has installed the Goods, from the date of installation), provided that:
 - 7.1.1 the Company shall have no liability in respect of any defects in the Goods arising from any Input Material;
 - 7.1.2 the Company shall have no liability in respect of any defect arising from fair wear and tear, wilful damage or negligence by the Customer or persons using the Goods, abnormal working conditions, failure to follow the Company's instructions for the care of the Goods (whether oral or in writing), or misuse, or alteration or repair of the Goods without the Company's approval, or any act or omission by the Customer which affects the quality of the Goods;

 - 7.2.1 the Company shall have no liability in respect of any deficiency in the Services arising from any Input Material;
 - 7.2.2 the Company shall have no liability in respect of any Installation Works for any loss or damage resulting from any fault with the Surface to which the Company attached or affixed the Goods where such fault was not apparent at the time of installation and had not been notified to the Company in writing by the Customer;

 - 7.2.3.1 any Surface wholly or partly comprised of glass where the damage arises from thermal expansion following the application of print or vinyl to the Surface;

- 7.2.3.2 any wall or any other Surface when printed wall coverings and/or adhesive vinyls are removed, since those materials adhere differently depending upon the particular finish of the Surface to which they have been applied;

 - 7.2.3.5 the Company shall have no liability if the Price has not been paid in full by the due date for payment; and
 - 7.2.3.6 any failure to meet the Technical Specification Brief or to undertake the Services with reasonable skill and care shall be notified to the Company in writing within 3 days from the time that the Customer discovered or ought to have discovered the non-conformity or deficiency, as applicable.
- 7.3 In the event of any valid claim under clauses 7.1 or 7.2 above being made by the Customer, the Customer shall afford the Company a reasonable opportunity to inspect the Goods or the results of the Services at a time convenient to the Company and the Company shall be entitled to replace or repair the Goods (or the part in question) or re-perform the Services free of charge or, at the Company's sole discretion, refund to the Customer the Price (or a proportionate part of the Price as appropriate). The Company shall have no further liability to the Customer.
- 7.4 All warranties, conditions and other terms implied by statute or common law (save for the conditions implied by section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 and section 2 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982) are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from the Contract.
- 7.5 The Company does not seek to exclude or limit its liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation or death or personal injury resulting from its own negligence, or for any other matter in respect of which it would be unlawful for the Company to exclude or limit its liability.

 - 7.6.1 any loss of profits;
 - 7.6.2 loss or depletion of goodwill;

- 7.7 Except pursuant to clause 7.5 above, in no event shall the Company's liability in respect of any of the Goods and/or Services whether such a claim is for breach of contract, strict liability or tort (including negligence) or otherwise, exceed the price paid for those Goods and/or Services.
- 7.8 Without limiting any other indemnity of the Customer under these Conditions, the Customer shall hold the Company harmless and keep the Company fully and promptly indemnified against all direct, indirect or consequential liabilities (all three of which terms include loss of profit, loss of business, depletion of goodwill and like loss), loss, damages, injury, costs and expenses (including legal and other professional fees and expenses) awarded against or incurred or paid by the Company as a result of or in connection with any claim made by or against the Company in respect of any liability, loss, damage, injury, cost or expense whatsoever, howsoever and to whomsoever occurring, to the extent that such liability, loss, damage, injury, cost or expense arises directly or indirectly from the Customer's fraud, negligence, failure to perform or delay in the performance of any of its obligations under the Contract or breach thereof, subject to the Company confirming such costs, charges and losses to the Customer in writing.

8. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 8.1 The Customer and the Company agree that in the course of the Company providing Goods and/or Services to the Customer, the parties may disclose to each other certain Confidential Information. The Customer and the Company agree that each party will maintain the Confidential Information's confidentiality and not disseminate it to any third party without the disclosing party's prior written consent, save that this obligation shall not apply to any Confidential Information that either party has a duty (whether legal or otherwise) to communicate or that is in the public domain or is already in the receiving party's possession through no fault of the receiving party. The Customer and the Company further agree not to use any Confidential Information for any purpose other than the discharge of their respective obligations under the Contract.
- 8.2 The Customer acknowledges the Company's sole and exclusive ownership of any Intellectual Property Rights in any Company Material and in any Goods and/or Services supplied to the Customer pursuant to the Contract and agrees not to contest the Company's ownership or use of any such Intellectual Property Rights. The Customer shall not acquire any such Intellectual Property Rights or any licence or grant of rights therein, nor shall the Customer register or attempt or permit to be registered, any such Intellectual Property Rights or any licence or grant of rights therein. The Customer further acknowledges that any and all Intellectual Property Rights developed by the Company in supplying any Goods and/or Services to the Customer shall become vested and shall vest in the Company absolutely and shall also be subject to the other provisions of this clause 8.2. The Customer shall not copy or reproduce any Company Material without the Company's prior written consent and the Customer shall immediately return any and all Company Material to the Company upon request.
- 8.3 The Customer grants the Company a fully paid-up, non-exclusive, royalty-free non-transferable licence to copy and modify any materials provided by the Customer, including but not limited to Input Materials, to the Company for the term of the Contract for the purpose of providing the Services to the Customer.

9. DATA PROTECTION

- 9.1 Both parties will comply with all applicable requirements of the Data Protection Legislation. This clause 9 is in addition to, and does not relieve, remove or replace, a party's obligations or rights under the Data Protection Legislation.
- 9.2 The parties acknowledge that for the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation, the Customer is the controller and the Company is the processor.
- 9.3 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 9.1, the Customer will ensure that it has all necessary appropriate consents and notices in place to enable lawful transfer of the personal data (including any sensitive personal data) to the Company for the duration and purposes of the Contract.
- 9.4 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 9.1, the Company shall, in relation to any personal data processed in connection with the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Contract:
- 9.4.1 process that personal data only on the documented written instructions of the Customer unless the Company is required by Applicable Laws to otherwise process that personal data. Where the Company is relying on Applicable Laws as the basis for processing personal data, the Company shall promptly notify the Customer of this before performing the processing required by the Applicable Laws unless those Applicable Laws prohibit the Company from so notifying the Customer;
 - 9.4.2 ensure that it has in place appropriate technical and organisational measures, reviewed and approved by the Customer, to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data, appropriate to the harm that might result from the unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage and the nature of the data to be protected, having regard to the state of technological development and the cost of implementing any measures (those measures may include, where appropriate, pseudonymising and encrypting personal data, ensuring confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of its systems and services, ensuring that availability of and access to personal data can be restored in a timely manner after an incident, and regularly assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of the technical and organisational measures adopted by it);
 - 9.4.3 ensure that all personnel who have access to and/or process personal data are obliged to keep the personal data confidential; and
 - 9.4.4 not transfer any personal data outside of the European Economic Area unless the prior written consent of the Customer has been obtained and the following conditions are fulfilled:
 - 9.4.4.1 the Customer or the Company has provided appropriate safeguards in relation to the transfer;
 - 9.4.4.2 the data subject (as defined in the Data Protection Legislation) has enforceable rights and effective legal remedies;

- 9.4.4.3 the Company complies with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation by providing an adequate level of protection to any personal data that is transferred; and
 - 9.4.4.4 the Company complies with reasonable instructions notified to it in advance by the Customer with respect to the processing of the personal data;

 - 9.4.6 notify the Customer without undue delay on becoming aware of a personal data breach;
 - 9.4.7 at the written direction of the Customer, delete or return personal data and copies thereof to the Customer on termination of the Contract unless required by Applicable Law to store the personal data; and
 - 9.4.8 maintain complete and accurate records and information to demonstrate its compliance with this clause 9 and immediately inform the Customer if, in the opinion of the Company, an instruction infringes the Data Protection Legislation.
- 9.5 Either party may, at any time on not less than 30 days' notice, revise this clause 9 by replacing it with any applicable controller to processor standard clauses or similar terms forming part of an applicable certification scheme (which shall apply when replaced by attachment to the Contract). The Company confirms that it will process personal data and sensitive personal data lawfully and fairly for the purpose of fulfilling its obligations under the Contract.

10. RISK AND TITLE

- 10.1 The Goods are at the risk of the Customer from the time of delivery or installation.
- 10.2 Title to the Goods shall not pass to the Customer until the Company has received in full (in cash or cleared funds) the Price for the Goods and all invoices have been paid. The Company shall be entitled to recover payment for the Goods notwithstanding that title of any of the Goods has not passed from the Company.
- 10.3 Until title of the Goods has passed to the Customer, the Customer shall:
 - 10.3.1 hold the Goods on a fiduciary basis as the Company's bailee;
 - 10.3.2 store the Goods (at no cost to the Company) separately from all other goods of the Customer or any third party in such a way that they remain readily identifiable as the Company's property;
